When our Rangatahi from Little old Mangakino Get it JPKA and Recognition on a World Stage

When thinking about this time of year we think about the importance of whānau and whanaungatanga with that in mind what better way to support this than to show the importance of supporting our American Indigenous people with their fight to save the earth and water "Life is Water" "Ko Au te Awa, Ko te Awa Ko Au". This is a time where we can use a forum to show others what is important to us in a positive way.

Tena koutou katoa,

On Saturday the 10th of December the 18+ Coffee Club of the Mangakino Community Agency, held their first Youth Art Auction Fundraiser for 2016. It was a first for the Whanau that was involved to organise and we can say was a great success. All 6 Art pieces created by youth of Mangakino, and the 3 kindly donated canvases were successfully auctioned. A great night was had by all Whanau that attended and a great big Thank you to you all the whanau that donated and supported and also to Mangakino Hotel, Muckys @ lakeside Village Inn, Tia Karauna for the awesome spread and her tireless mahi, Our amazing Auctioneer "Uncle Pata" and Mangakino Family Services for their Koha .

On a sad note it was disappointing to see the lack of support our community, especially local businesses/organisations, make for Our Rangatahi.
